Glendale Artists to Show in 18th Annual Celebration of Fine Art

Juried, Invitational Show Takes Place January 12 - March 23, 2008 in Scottsdale

(Scottsdale, AZ) – Top Glendale artists will show in the Celebration of Fine Art which takes place under the “Big White Tent” January 12 - March 23, 2008 in Scottsdale, Arizona. In its 18th year, the Celebration of Fine Art, a fusion of the best of art galleries, art studios and art shows, brings 100 of the top international and U.S. artists to Scottsdale. The three Glendale artists who have been invited to participate in this juried show include: Phoenix native, Diane F. Barbee, and two Bogota, Columbia born artists, Stella Sarmiento and Roberto Gutierrez.

Barbee is known for her strong color and dramatic compositions in landscape, still life and interior spaces. Sculptor and architect, Roberto Gutierrez was named “Sculptor of the Year” in 1997 in Colombia and is known for his monumental works. This will be Gutierrez’s sixth consecutive year showing in the Celebration of Fine Art. Stella Sarmiento creates 18 and 24 karat gold designs combined with precious and semi-precious stones and sterling silver.

“Our visitors can meet the artists and watch them working in the full spectrum of art media in all styles and a wide variety of subjects. Being able to watch artists create art is part of what makes our show so special,” said Susan Morrow Potje, one of the show’s four organizers. The show is designed so that first time buyers-to-serious collectors are comfortable in this inviting atmosphere.
